Item 5.02 (b)           Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

In its Proxy Statement dated March 21, 2011, Southwest Gas Corporation (the “Company”) disclosed that its Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that no director having attained the age of 72 years will be nominated for reelection or reappointment to the Board of Directors (“Board”) unless a majority of the Board determines that said nomination is in the best interests of the shareholders. The Board determined that it was in the best interest of the shareholders to nominate James J. Kropid, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and director Richard M. Gardner for reelection at last year’s Annual Meeting, even though they attained the age of 72. As of the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, directors Kropid and Gardner will be 73 years old and will be retiring from the Board at the conclusion of the meeting. With Mr. Kropid’s retirement, it is the intention of the Board to elect Michael J. Melarkey as Chairman of the Board of Directors, subject to his reelection as a director at this year’s meeting. Mr. Melarkey would assume these new responsibilities, including those of the Presiding Director, at the Board’s organizational meeting to be held immediately following the Annual Meeting of Shareholders.
